RACES WERE RUN IN FOOT OF WATER.

Daredevil Jockeys Cheered by Thousands as They Splashed Through the Lake.

ONLY TWO HORSES STUMBLED.

Riders Found the Water a Soft Falling Place-Balance All Won Belle Meade Stakes at Nashville.

Cincinnati, O., April 25.-A new and nove record was established at the Newport track Thursday that will go down in turf history as the only one of its kind. Six races were run over a track averaging a foot of water, and in some places deeper. It was accomplished without serious accident to horse or rider.

When the patrons of the track arrived on the grounds they were surprised to find the home-stretch for about seventy yards completely inundated and also part of the back-stretch covered with water.

The horsemen and the jockeys were con sulted on the advisability of carrying ou the day's programme, and by unanimous consent the card was run off. There were many exciting contests during the day, and thousands cheered the riders as they rod daredevil fashion through the lake on the a horse wabbled until the finish in the stumbled, throwing their riders into the water, but the boys were not seriously in jured. The racing will be continued Fristances.

thursday night the turfmen are talking of the evolution of horseracing into an aquat Newport Summarles.

BALANCE ALL IN A ROMP.

Double, at Nashville.

EPUBLIC SPECIAL.

Nashville, Tenn., April 25.—A large crowd atended the Faces Thursday. Eight books were in ine and the betting was the best in years.

The feature of the programme was the Belth ileade Stakes, at four furlongs, for 3-year-old illack Balance All and Sans Pariel, coupled as illacknows entry, went to the post favorities at a to 2. The betting on this race was heavy, and it is estimated that the bookies lost at least $10.000. The start was delayed for some time by Balance All, After several false breaks, the field starter, in front, and Balance All second, with the rest well up.

The Jackson filly got to the front in the first few strides, and made all the running. She won, pulled up, by four lengths from Queen Burlington, who was a length in front of Winter Belle, the third filly.

The other races furnished excellent sport. Annie Lauretta, quoted at 40 to 1, tiptoed her field in the third race, and won easily by two lengths. Only one favorite landed, but the other winners were well suported, and the bookes lost heavily.

The association decided Thursday to give a fall meeting of twelve or eighteen days this year.

Johnnie Troxler, brother of Jockey Roscoe Troxler, who was reinstated by the Turf Congress this week, Thursday gave out the statement that he was willing to surrender his guardianship of the Jockey Just as soon as he signed with some reliable stable. The reason he signed with some reliable stable. The reason he boy too jump the Turf Congress after he had just been reinstated by that organization. If Jockey Troxler could not sign with some reliable stable racing under the jurisdiction of the Turf Congress then he would favor the acceptance of the McLawlee offer.

FOR FAIR GROUNDS.

G. L. Crawford, J. T. Drummond, Allen T. Simpkins and W. E. Orthwein May Be Chosen.

THE COST OF BEING OBLIGING

Turfman Tells of a Case Where Responsibility Without Power Worked a Trainer Much Harm.

Members of the St. Louis Jockey Club met at their clubhouse at the Fair Grounds on Thursday and elected a Governing Board. The following sportsmen are chosen to serve on the Governing Board: Allen T. Simpkins, W. C. McCreery, W. E. Orthwein, G. Lacey Crawford, James T. Drummond, H. Daughaday, Rudolph Limburg, Lindell Gordon, Sidney Walker, Fred W. Paramore, H. A. Steinwender, John S. Carter and Fred Hirsch.

The constitution of the board seemed to give eminent satisfaction to the members of the club, an unprecedentedly large number of which were present. The golfing element appeared especially elated, for it secured a large representation on the board. In the past this element has not been as strongly represented as it felt it should be, Messrs, Simpkins, McCreery, Drummond, Daugha-day, Gordon, Walker, Paramore and Carter are all leading golfers. Messrs, Craw-ford, Orthwein, Drummond, Limburg. Steinwender and Hirsch represent the turf element in a most satisfactory manner, for they are all gentlemen sportsmen of the highest type. Mr. McCreery said, after the election:

"We golfers consider it by all means the best board the Fair Grounds has had since Mr. Maffitt was president." Mr. Crawford indorsed Mr. McCreery's opinion. From the Governing Board a board of racing stewards will be elected. The gentlemen who will be chosen to make up this important committee will probably be Messrs. Crawford, Drummond, Orthwein and Simpkins. Of quite as much importance will be the election of the Golf Committee. The chairman of this important branch of The chairman of this important branch of the club is forecast as Mr. Conger, whom the other golfing members regard as an eminently sultable man, as he has a thorough knowledge of golf and its requirements. Messas, Gordon, Walker and Paramore will, it is said, be asked to serve the club on this committee, as they are all ardent golfers, and are considered capable of working intelligently for the good of the game.

of working intelligently for the good of the game.

The Governing Board will meet at the office of G. L. Crawford, in the Bank of Commerce building, on Saturday, at 11:39 a. m., to appoint committees. Three additional members will be added to the thirteen elected yesterday. These three will be taken from the Board of Directors, and will probably be President Tilles, Valle Reyburn and Charles Green.

"In the turf, as in many other lines of business, a man frequently makes a mistake in accepting a position and allowing himself to be superseded in the direction of the work he assumes responsibility for by others," said a prominent turfman yesterday. "I have a case in mind of a young man who trained horses at the Fair Grounds last season. This young man is very smart and well equipped for the business, and eminently constituted to make a good trainer. He accepted a position as trainer with a good stable. Unfortunately trainer with a good stable. Unfortunately one of the owners of the stable insisted upon personally directing the work of the horses, their feeding, and, in fact, entirely superintending their training. Some very promising horses were in the stable. One of them was a St. Louis Derby candidate of prominence. It was plain to the public that the horse was ruined in preparation for the race in question. The nominal trainer got all the blame, for few people knew that one of the owners was the real trainer, who spoiled the horse. The newsuapers abused the trainer for the poor handling of the horse, which was plain, indeed. As a result of all this, the man cannot get a position as a rubber to-day. Yet he was no more responsible for the work of the stable than you are. He merely acted as nominal trainer, did what he was told, that he might draw his salary, which was a dear salary to him. Thus a man can never afford to do what he knows is wrong, even if his employer makes it worth his while to do so. It will cost him dearly in the end."

It will cost him dearly in the end."

"Lovers of the true sportsman," said a local horseman, "cannot avoid rejoicing in the great success of the modest stable owned by Tom Hayes, the man who broke up the Western Jockey Club, the man whom all other men could not bluff or make bow because he wore the mail suit of the sportsman, not the weak armor of the gambler. Hayes is not rich, save in honesty and in sportsmanship. He is the man who saved Adler, Cella and Tillies and the Turf Congress from destruction. He did not do it because of selfsh interests. He did it, though personally disinterested. It was Hayes who led the revolt of owners from the Western Jockey Club. It was Hayes who brought reluctant stables to run at the outlawed Little Rock track when the fate of the Turf Congress hung by a thread. He made a fight for open-door racing in the West; took the chance of having his horses obtlawed and his sphere of racing operations curtailed, although at the time he did not intend to race in the West after the Memphis meeting. Hence he had no interest in the bitter fight between the warring Western bodies, save that which compels every true sportsman, interested or disinterested, to fight to a finish for a square deal. Hayes has a good stable. He meant all the while to take it East, where there was no turf war. Meantime, the Jockey Club arbitrarily assumed to choke off new tracks, to syndicate racing, to limit the Western horseman's horizon. Hayes was too much of a man to stand for this. off new tracks to syndicate racing, to limit the Western horseman's horizon. Hayes was too much of a man to 'stand for' this. He worked hard to beat the Jockey Club; took a chance on having his own valuable horses outlawed to make it possible for poor owners of poor horses to race where they deemed fit; interested other owners; put sand in the craw and steel in the back bone of 'weak sisters' and licked the great Western Jockey Club in two weeks. Having won the fight, Hayes took his horses East, where he might have gone in the first place, and left the weak owners to fight and get beaten. It is once in a million years you meet a true sportsman among horse owners, bookmakers or regular race-track habitues. Tom Hayes is the first one I have heard of since John Carter died."

London April 25.—At the first day's racing of the Sandowne Park second spring meeting Thurs-day, Sandowne Park Stud Produce Stakes was won by the Irene colt, ridden by Lester Rein. The tenth year of the Tudor Plate of 1,000 sovereigns for 3-year-olds, at one mile, was won by George Faher's Pletermaritzburg. Desay-mar, owned by Sir J. Blundell Maple, was second, and Richard Croker's Viper, with Lester Rein in the saddle, came in third. Fourteen horses ran. The Juvenille Selling Plate of 103 sovereigns, at the furlongs, was won by the Delightful colt, ridden by Lester Reiff. Mr. McCreery's Ripa colt, Danny Meher up, was second, and Lon-don Assurance third. Twelve horses started.

NEWS OF THE COURSING SWARD. Secretary Benson of the St. Lou's Coursing Club announces that a draw for Sunday's stake will take place at the corner of Bartmer avenue and the Suburban tracks on Friday night. Two stakes will be open to nominators, one an all-aged, at $2. and a puppy stake, at $2. There will be added money in both. Mr. Benson states that, in all probability, the coursing season will continue to June 1. Henceforth only male hares will be coursed, as the does are protected by close season.

Mr. Deschaseaux's fast and clever black bitch Society Belle (Grand Fashlon-Lady of Fashlon) has been bred to Mr. Lavin's imported Barton Tag, Norway-Myrtle Green, Society Belle is a beautifully bred bitch. Her lines and action on the field do not belle her breeding. The manner in which she azaumes increased speed as she draws near her hare, and then coherently joins the straight run up to the always sharp first turn, is really remarkable. She never runs wide when first reaching the evasive game, as even many steady dogs do. Her fault has been an inclination to chuck it up on very slight provocation.

Mr. Curran will breed Gil Blas to Van Nye. This dog begat such fine stock when mated to Mr. Brown's Lose Widow that breeders are much taken with him, although he never displayed speed or cleverness of a high order in his coursing career. He is, however, a very well-breed dog, having a double cross of Herschel close up. He is also an honest fellow, though coursed hard and often out of condition. Van Nore, Van Noye, Old Kentucky and Old Virginia apparently owe their beauty, power and speed to the Lord Neversettle strain, rather than to the Herschel. Van Nora is one of the finest specimens of a greyhound bitch ever seen in the world. Old Kentucky is a model in appearance. If not exactly handsome, Van Noye and Old Virginia make up in strength and speed what they lack in symmetry.

Banastar, Miss H. J. Gibbons's white-and-brin-dle dog, by High Curley, out of Roxie, has done very well for a raw and soft dog. He is a tre-nendous fellow, but never had enough exercise to put enough muscle on him to carry his fat. Mr. Gibbons has worked wenders with him in a short time, and better things may be expected from him when he gets in really fine condition. Arthur Hynes says that Mr. Crawford's Astral Mald was going fifty ways from the slips at the Mankato, Kas., meeting last week. "She led everything three to twenty lengths," said Mr. Hynes yesterday. "Reckless Archer, a fast Callfornia dog, was easy for her. She led him five lengths with a badly broken foot. She also led The Prude, who is reckoned the fastest thing in Kansas. I never saw her going so well, and every succeeding course was run better than the previous one. Had there been enough hares left to let us run the stake out she would have won easily. The hares escaped from the park the previous night, when a storm blew down part of the fence. Miletus ran well. Astral Maid led him a length or so, and was lucky to get an undecided with him. Then she beat him. The judging was fonny. Astral Maid led up by three lengths, and ran right into her hare-killing on three separate occasions, but the judge called them no courses." Mr. Menown will soon boast a litter of pupples, sons and daughters of Enim Pasha, greatest of sires, out of White Wings. These certainly should be the choicest greyhound pupples ever seen in this part of the country. There cannot be any question of Enim Pasha's wonderful prepotency, and White Wings is not only a very well-bred bitch, but she comes of a strain famous for producing dams.

A few weeks ago, in playing off a tie with Archibald Graham, the New Jersey champion, Travis established an annateur record for the Lakewood links by negotiating the eighteen-hole course in seventy-nine strokes. Since that time the course has been made a little more difficult by the erection of six bunkers, but nothwithstanding this, Travis succeeded in making the afternoon round in eighty, just one stroke behind the record. the record.
Sixty-five players started in the tournament, which opened the season in the metropolitan golf circuit. Of these only eight failed to turn in

REPUBLIC SPECIAL.
Pittsburg, Pa., April 25.—The Pittsburg and St. Louis teams arrived here this evening, but will not be able to play to-morrow unless diving suits are worn. The outfield at the ball park this evening lay under two feet of water, while the infield was covered with mud a foot deep. Secretary Pulliam rowed over to the field in a boat. A park for practice work has been secured. It is barely possible that a game will be played Saturday, but the hope of even that is remote, as it will be all that the management can do to get the park in any good shape by Monday. President Dreyfuss of the locals was in an ugly humor to-day over the failure of his scheme to have the Pirates remain in St. Louis until Sunday night.

When seen at the Southern Hotel on Thursday night, Frank DeHaas Robison stated that he could not understand the re ported conduct of President Dreyfuss of the Pittsburg club. Mr. Robison says that he was informed by Mr. Pulliam that the Pittsburg park was in good condition and that the officials of the Pirates wanted the team to return and open the season, as per Nick Young's schedule. Then the St. Louis team departed for Pittsburg.

for play until Monday at earliest. Mr. Dreyfus requested Mr. Robison to transfer the series scheduled to begin in Pittsburg on Friday, April 26, to St. Louis. Although such a transfer would mean money in the pocket of the St. Louis club owners, it is said that they refused to accede to it. Their reason for doing so is credited to a desire to save their team until the catchers get a triffe better in condition and the team stands a clearer chance of winning.

The St. Louis team is not in good condition, while the Pittsburg team is. Under these conditions Mr. Donovan will have the men work out and get into better condition. The club will return to St. Louis on May I to open a four-game series with Cincinnati.

Chetago, III., April 25.—The Chicago club won Thursday's game by superior batting and base running. Both pitchers were wild, due largely to the cool weather. Back's long drive over the right-field fence for the first home run and Brain's fielding were the features. Attendance 2,500. Score:

Burkett is very fast for the present season, though he is fully twenty pounds over his best playing weight. They say that Kruger is getting to be a wise fellow on the bugs, and is sure to greatly im-prove in this respect. Kling, the modest new catcher of the Chicago lub, is a steady receiver, a sound hitter and he possessor of a fine arm.

Chicago papers are not kind to Jim Delehanty, the third baseman. They do a good man an injustice. Delehanty is young, impetuous and rough, but he possesses many of the essentials of a good baseball player. He has a keen wit, a strong arm, a good eye, a fast foot and a fine natural batting swing.

Lajole is hitting many balls over the fences of the American League Park at Philadelphia. It is a small grounds. Yousouf Murphy, who kept the St. Louis park for a season, is keeping the grounds in question.

"Left" Davis is making good with Ed Han-lon. Davis was a flower that long blushed un-seen and wasted its sweetness on the desert air of minor leagues circuits. He is a very fast man, a left-handed batter, a crack base-runner and a ball player withal; that is, he has a head on his shoulders.

Assistant Health Commission inspected the institution Thursday afteroon and reported to the board and to Pre ident Hornsby of the City Council. Mr. Francis's statement invoked a discussion between Health Commissioner Starkloff, dent Hornsby, concerning the wretched condition of the eleemosynary institutions, Dootor Starkloff declaring, as did Mayor Wells on Wednezday, that new buildings are needed in place of the old structures.

"In my opinion," Doctor Starkloff stated,
"many of the old structures are so dilapidated as to be beyond repair. The present city administration, I believe, is confronted with more serious problems than has any other administration in the city's history.

"The City Hospital is overcrowded from cellar to roof. In the Insane Asylum the beds are so close together that there is scarcely enough room between them for walking. The scenes in the Poorhouse are too pitiable to mention. I have no doubt walking. The scenes in the Poorhouse are too pitiable to mention. I have no doubt that they were a revelation to Mayor Wells. With the World's Fair coming, these institutions will be obliged to accommodate more patients. The only permanent solution of the problem is in erecting new buildings. Meanwhile, however, we must arrange to care for the overflow from the prosent institutions. We should either purchase the property offered to us, or else some other property, equally as suitable, and do the best we can until new buildings can be constructed."

Mr. Francis said that the Pius Hospital is a well-preserved four-story brick building, supplied with elevators, heating appliances and all modern conveniences. He thinks the property is worth 100,000. As the building is furnished, and the furnishings are included in the proposition, it could be occupied at once.

The City Hospital Fund, set aside from municipal revenue for hospital building has an unappropriated balance of 250,000 was appropriated year. The sum of 1250,000 was appropriated from the fund for the new pavilion hospital on Lafayette avenue. Doctor Starkloff and Mr. Francis are in favor of using this unappropriated balance of 250,000 either to buy the Pius Hospital or some other hospital building.

founded upon this idea.

The board concluded Thursday to take a positive position against physicians violating the sanitary ordinances. Doctor Starkloff says that physicians who fail to notify the board of infectious diseases will be prosected.
